

Steering Committee, was a few minutes late in reaching the convention. He was fresh from the Bryan campaign in the headquarters at the Lindell. There is no question about Bryan's nomination," said Gen. Weaver. "He will have a big majority of all the states."

Senator Puffer of Kansas nodded assent to this proposition, and Senators Kyle and Allen looked delighted. "Cyclone" Davis of Texas looked like the end of a small wind storm. As the victorious Bryan free silver Populists passed the word that victory was in sight, the storm clouds began to gather. The middle of the road men chewed tobacco vigorously and looked to "Cyclone" Davis to lead them against the enemy. As soon as the Committee on Permanent Organization was named it retired into an anteroom to formulate its report.

The Committee on Credentials was still wrestling with its report. It was trying to avoid the threatened fight on the floor. The chief difficulty was found in the Cook County contest. The committee wanted to give the two delegations a half vote each. To this the Taylor faction declined to agree.

It wanted the full vote or nothing. The ninety-two Bryan men from Kansas entered the convention, each arrived with a big palm leaf fan, to which was attached a huge sunflower. Just to show their good faith, the Citizens' Committee turned on the electric lights full blast at 11 o'clock.

With this demonstration that the wires were not now disconnected, even "Cyclone" Davis was satisfied. The middle of the road men tried to stampede the convention. They marched down the aisle carrying a banner with a middle of the road device.

Mrs. Jones of Illinois, who was on the platform, shouted and cheered the Texans. The few "road" men in the gallery led their voices to the clamor. The effort fell flat. It was dramatically arranged, but it only served to demonstrate the hopeless minority of the straight-tickets.

A squad of middle of the roaders, headed by Delegate Branch of Georgia, who had planned into the hall through the main entrance, came whirling down the center aisle. Mr. Branch bore aloft a big white banner with this inscription:

MIDDLE OF THE ROAD STRAIGHT TICKET.

At sight of the Texas, Georgia, Maine, Missouri and Mississippi delegations mounted their chairs and yelled at the top of their voices. At the same time a middle of the road delegate stationed in the gallery over the platform hurled through the air about a peck of small round tickets which broke and fell like a cloud of stage snow over the pit.

The four delegations gave cheer after cheer, but the others sat stolidly in their seats. About a sixth of the delegates joined the demonstration. The green tickets, when examined, contained the following:

"Middle of the road, our financial plank."

The committee met in the ladies' ordinary at the Lindell Hotel and began work at once. There was a ripple of applause and a few shouts when the name of Jacob Coxey was announced as a member of the Committee on Platform from Ohio. There were also demonstrations for Gov. Hancock of Nevada, Gen. Weaver of Iowa and ex-Gov. Lielewelling of Kansas when their names were shouted out.

Conspicuous on the floor was a lady who sat with the Kentucky delegation. She was dressed in virgin white and above her dark tresses floated several long white plumes. She proved to be the newly wedded bride of Heloise Taylor, editor of the Paducah (Ky.) Herald.

While the committee were out Delegate Dixon of Oklahoma mounted the stage and after adjuring the delegates to be quiet and not interrupt, introduced Clarence Conley of Oklahoma, who presented the convention with some campaign songs. He is small of stature, but he has a good baritone voice, and the words of his songs tickled the delegates immensely. They applauded him with opportunity, despite his deprecating gestures.

The words of the song dealt with the woe of the farmer, the woe of the miner, the woe of the fisherman and the woe of the laborer. He sang in a pleasant soprano, and the words of his songs tickled the delegates immensely. They applauded him with opportunity, despite his deprecating gestures.

At Alabama, delegate John H. Rogers introduced "Miss Bennington," the sweet campaign singer of Arkansas. She sang in a pleasant soprano, and the words of her songs tickled the delegates immensely. They applauded her with opportunity, despite her deprecating gestures.

two reports. One for Campion of Maine and the other for Butler of North Carolina. The latter allows his name to be used in that connection.

A majority of the committee seem disposed to make John Hays, the temporary secretary, the permanent secretary, but this is being fought by some of the labor men. If Hays should be selected there will be a minority report against him.

ing through Georgia" for the "seventh time since the convention of 1892. It was a song about a fellow from Jasper County sang a doggerel song about "Round Money" and the refusal to accept the "round money" of the single dollar. Just the last dollar that the boys would all holler when Mr. McKim of the Credentials Committee was there. The audience grew restless and some vented its feelings in jeers and cat-calls.

At 10:30 the convention's restless spirit asserted itself in a demand for the informal reading of the reports of the committees. That was ready in order that the delegates might be informed as to the character of the reports pending the action of the Credentials Committee, whose delay had made a suspension of all business necessary.

The Credentials Committee reported on behalf of the Resolutions Committee. The report was a long and detailed one, and it was read by the committee's secretary, Mr. Hays. The report was a long and detailed one, and it was read by the committee's secretary, Mr. Hays.

Chairman John H. Rogers, for the Committee on Permanent Organization, and Rules and Order, presented the report of the committee for the information of the convention. It makes the temporary organization permanent, and named the following list of Vice-Presidents by Congressional districts:

First, Thomas J. Dockery; Second, C. D. Morris; Third, Gen. B. M. Prentiss; Fourth, E. C. Duncanson; Fifth, John Lack; Sixth, H. H. Mitchell; Seventh, James Taylor; Eighth, J. C. Fisher; Ninth, G. W. out taking the platform, and in a plain matter-of-fact way, presented the name of Judge Adams of Hannibal, whose candidacy had not before been made known.

When James L. Minnis of Carroll County took the platform to present the name of Gen. John B. Hays, there was a great and spontaneous burst of applause, and the Democrats with shouting and cheering, charged the Populists and denounced them as traitors.

Minis raised a laugh when he declared that "the peerless statesman and gallant soldier, Benson B. Cahoon, would make a good candidate for four years hence." He evoked a tornado of applause when he referred similarly to Webster Davis, and he caused another laugh by saying that Joe Upton would make a splendid Secretary of Agriculture or Attorney General in McKinley's Cabinet. Minis was called to time by the chair before he got through the list of candidates.

When the Fifth District was called and Davis roared again gave their lungs, and the Democrats with shouting and cheering, charged the Populists and denounced them as traitors.

BRYAN'S LOFTY DEAL OF LAW.

HIS TALK TO THE CONVENTION OF COMMERCIAL LAWYERS.

ABSENCE OF PERSONALITIES.

A Characteristic of the Legal Profession He Would Like to See in Politics.

OMAHA, Neb., July 23.—William J. Bryan addressed the Convention of Commercial Lawyers of the United States Wednesday night as follows:

"I very much regret that circumstances over which I have no absolute control have prevented my taking part in this meeting and gathering the inspiration and the information which such a meeting is able to give. For about seven years I was an attorney, and I feel yet a very keen interest in all that pertains to the profession of law.
I do not remember the time when I decided to be a lawyer. The determination was made back beyond the time to which my memory runs. It was my chosen profession. There is one thing I have always loved in the profession of the law, and it is this: that in the law men contend over the principle at stake without arousing those personal animosities which are sometimes aroused elsewhere. It has always been a matter of great satisfaction to me to know that lawyers could differ and oppose each other with all the ability they possessed, and yet during all the contest retain the warmest personal relations.
"This, as I say, has always impressed me, and it is a characteristic of the law that may well be carried into politics.
When that time is carried into politics we can fight our battles upon a lofty plane—not battles of persons, but principles, where men contend with no loss of respect for each other and no loss of affection for each other.
"During the first of those seven years I, like you, was trying to find out what the law was. Then for six years I have been in the law, and I have been in no position where I completely lost sight of it.
"In my opinion, a lawyer is a labor-saving machine. He comes in response to a demand. People find it more economical to employ a lawyer than to present their ideas or to defend their rights than it would be for each man to be his own lawyer. If I may be permitted to express an opinion on this subject, the client who would ask his attorney to secure for him more than the justice to which he is entitled to under the law has no right to complain if his lawyer tells him that he has a higher idea of his profession than the client."

At the close of the address, the delegates clustered around Mr. Bryan to shake his hand, and claimed his attention in that manner for a quarter of an hour.

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

The New York Kickers Hold Several Conferences.

NEW YORK, July 23.—A conference of gold standard Democrats was held Wednesday at the residence of William C. Whitney.
Present were State Chairman Hinckley, Delaney Nicoll, James J. Martin, Chairman of the Tammany Executive Committee, and William P. Sheehan, New York's member of the National Committee.

Another conference was held at the Metropolitan Club, where assembled many public men, including ex-Gov. Flower, ex-Mayor Grant, J. Edward Simmons, Frederick R.
Condit and Smith M. Wood. The whole discussion was gone over.

The State Committee of the Democratic Reform organization met last night and determined to take part in the Chicago sound money conference if it remains in session Friday. Resolutions were adopted repudi-ating the Chicago ticket and platform. A committee was appointed to confer with Chicago and see if the conference there would stay over Friday. If so the New Yorkers will participate.

Don Dickinson is visiting the President at Gray Gables and a meeting may be brought about by Senator Hilditch.

John C. Sheehan said last night:
"Tammany will wait for the State Committee to meet next Tuesday before arranging for a ratification meeting. That is the best we can do. I want to see the holding off. The voting Democracy in this city is for the ticket, and a majority of the district leaders of Tammany Hall want to ratify the Chicago nominations and platform. I do not think that will be the present ratification by Tammany. When the proper time comes, we will endorse the ticket in a manner satisfactory to Democrats all over the land."

Sound money Democrats who are to hold the conference at Chicago to-night have heard that Cleveland prior to his going for McKinley, but repudiate this course and prefer a ticket.

A section of Eastern Iowa Democrats have bolted the Chicago ticket.
The Kentucky Advocate of Danville, Ky., has bolted Bryan.

Comptroller of the Treasury Bowler says
he will not vote for Bryan.

Secretary of Agriculture Morton is talked of for standard-bearer of the bolting Democrats.

STREET TO RESCUE.

NEW YORK BANKERS TURN GOLD INTO THE TREASURY.

THE PLANS OF THE POOL.

Politics, Not Patriotism, Is the Open Sesame to the Money Bags of Gotham.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The bankers' pool for the protection of the Treasury gold reserve has been finally organized. J. P. Morgan presided at a meeting Wednesday afternoon, which had this end in view, and there were present twenty-one representatives of banking houses engaged in the foreign exchange business. Among the foreign exchange houses represented were Heilbach, Ickelheimer & Co., L. Von Hoffman & Co., Thero & Wood, Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., Lazard Freres of Paris and the Warburgs of London. President of the New York Life Insurance Co., G. W. Crossman of Crossman & Bro., Philip Fisk of Fisk & Sons, Jacob Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., were also present.

The conference lasted about an hour, and after adjournment it was announced that an agreement had been outlined and a committee appointed to draw up the details of a plan for the protection of the Treasury gold reserve. The committee consisted of J. P. Morgan, chairman; John Crosby Brown of Brown Bros. & Co.; A. Augustus Belmont of Belmont & Co.; H. H. Kuhn of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.; W. Belmont of Speyer & Co., H. Ickelheimer of Ickelheimer & Co., and E. Mayer of Lazard Freres.

At the conference Mr. Morgan made a strong plea for the co-operation of the exchange bankers in protecting the reserve. He told the representatives of the foreign houses that a bond issue at this time would be politically inexpedient, and that the United States would be preserved and this country, if continued, would kill the goose that laid the golden egg. By getting together and protecting the reserve, Mr. Morgan said, the financial credit of the United States would be preserved and the end the foreign bankers would derive greater benefits than the shipment of gold for a small amount of the profit at this time would yield. He emphasized the necessity of presenting the sound money cause in the best possible light before the American people, and urged the exchange men to spike the guns of the free silver advocates by providing ample gold for business purposes between now and the day of election.

Feature of the scheme is the offering in the New York market, in large amounts, of sixty-day bills of exchange on London. These bills, it is figured out, can be covered at maturity by the bills drawn in London to pay for our cotton and grain, which have already begun to move outward to Europe. In this way the demand for exchange bills will be met and, practically, the shipment of gold checked or stopped altogether. Bills will be sold in a manner to strengthen the general scheme. The foreign bankers, it is understood, pledged themselves to disburse $50,000,000 or $75,000,000 of exchange on London, if necessary, to protect the reserve.

Wall street received the announcement of the meeting with great satisfaction, and regarded it as a step toward the restoration of the national banks to restore the gold balance of the Treasury about the $100,000,000 line. It was recognized that however beneficial the plan might be to the country, it could only postpone another bond issue unless efforts were made to control the foreign exchange and put an end to the current shipment of gold to Europe.

The fact that Crossman & Bro. were represented at the meeting was significant of the strength of the pool. This firm was not a party to the bankers' agreement promulgated by J. P. Morgan last year, and during the life of the agreement it was a demand for gold to lend the Treasury. Great pressure was brought to bear by Morgan syndicate to trip the bank, but without avail, and now Mr. Morgan has taken Crossman & Bro. into the combination of bankers to prevent a recurrence of the fiasco of 1935.

While the conference was in progress the National Bank presidents were carrying out their part of the agreement to maintain the Treasury reserve. During the day $7,750,000 in gold was turned in to the Sub-Treasury by the National Bank, and at the close of business the balance of the Gallatin Bank said an additional sum, sufficient to restore the reserve to $100,000,000, would be deposited to-day. The banks are taking legal tenders in exchange for their gold.

The Hanover National Bank exchanged $1,500,000 in this way, the Gallatin National Bank $800,000, the National Park Bank $500,000, National City Bank $2,000,000, Merchants' National Bank $4,000,000, Bank of New York $200,000, Merchants' Bank $300,000, and smaller amounts by other banks, aggregating $7,750,000.

In addition to the banks it is understood that the trust companies will give up a portion of their gold, but this will not be done unless it is absolutely necessary to protect the reserve, or in cases where a vast amount of gold is lying idle which can be readily spared.

Before the agreement between the bankers took shape yesterday, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Heilbach, Ickelheimer & Co., L. Von Hoffman & Co. and Lazard Freres withdrew in various sums $10,000,000 in gold from the Sub-Treasury and the Assay Office for export. A portion of this gold, it is said, may be returned.

The effect of the agreement reached by the gold shipment houses was to impart a decided buoyancy to the stock market, and prices closed at the top figures of the day. Some of the most important advances were in the Lake Shore, 4; Chicago Gas, 3/4; Burlington, 3/4; Sugar, 3/4; Leather preferred and Manhattan, 3/4; Rock Island, 3/4; St. Paul and Mexico, 1/4; Consolidated Gas, 3/4, and New York Central, 3/4.

THE HOARDING OF GOLD.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23.—One feature of note in Wednesday's operations at the Treasury was the amount of gold withdrawn from the Sub-Treasury for hoarding in this country. It aggregated $74,100. The reserve balance at the close of business Wednesday was $3,329,124.

NEW COMPARTMENT SLEEPERS.
Addition to the Burlington's Equipment of Their St. Louis Limited.
Two handsome buffet combination standard and compartment sleepers have been put on the line between St. Joseph and St. Louis daily, as part of the equipment of the Burlington's St. Louis Limited train.

For some time the management has been arranging to substitute these handsome sleepers in service between these two cities, and its efforts to secure for its St. Joseph patrons this latest feature of Pullman service have been successful. The names of these compartment sleepers are "Radiant" and "Brilliant," and they are equipped also with buffet service.

O'NEILL'S RIVAL.

A Burst of Eloquence by a Slim Young Man Checked by a Detective.

The corridors of the Lindell Hotel were filled Wednesday night with a throng of people. They have been ever since the Pops came to town.

Not only are there delegates galore, but the townspeople, too, go down and study the queer-looking characters who have come in from the brush, bent on reforming the whole world in a minute.

Twenty minutes in this hotel are worth a six-months' course of travel, if you happen to be interested in American types. It beats the old-time country fair all to pieces, for here there is the whole country to pick from.

Wednesday night the crowd was bigger than usual. They swirled round and round with various alarm centers. Twenty men were making speeches in as many different places, and to each was drawn a bunch of eager listeners, to jeer or to applaud.

Each man seemed to imagine he was setting the fate of the nation and lung power was at a premium. Talk was so contagious that it affected John J. O'Neill, who once sat in Congress from the Eleventh District in this city. He was more eloquent than usual, and so delighted his hearers that they forced him to make the same speech at least six times.

While the ex-Congressman was making a fourth or fifth time, a slender young chap, with the general air of a hobo, crawled onto the chair in front of the speaker and began haranguing the multitude, also on free silver. Any man who talks about anything else in the Lindell these days is in danger.

The hobo was so contagious that it affected every minute when Detective Sam Allen, a hobo hunter, stepped into the corridor. His eyes fell on the orator, and he stopped for a minute, frowned a little, and then held up two fingers very much as Svangul used to do to the "Trilly."

"It is my wish," he muttered beneath his breath.

The hobo turned. He saw the detective, his jaw fell and not another sound issued from his mouth for thirty seconds. He looked as though some one had hit him in the pit of the stomach with a rock.

"You want to take me to the Four Courts now?" he asked, feebly, as soon as he could catch his breath.

Allen shook his head and motioned for the man to get off the chair. The fellow made no move to obey, and sneaked out as quickly as he could, leaving ex-Congressman O'Neill in undisputed possession of that part of the field.

Then the detective explained that the hobo was a well-known local orator of a petty order, who is arrested about four times a week. Every time he sees a policeman he is arrested, and he is not a police officer.

HOPE BOOTH ARRESTED.
Actress and Her Manager Charged With Violating Public Decency.

NEW YORK, July 23.—On complaint of Inspector Harley, Hope Booth, an actress, and John W. Hamilton, the lessee and manager of the Casino and American Theater Roof Gardens, were arrested and arraigned Wednesday night on charges of violating public decency.

The arrest was due to the appearance of Miss Booth in a sketch on the stage of a party order, who is arrested about four times a week. Every time he sees a policeman he is arrested, and he is not a police officer.

SPANISH ASSASSINS.
Charged With Murdering the Sick and Wounded in Hospitals.

KEY WEST, Fla., July 23.—Private letters from Matanzas, Cuba, to responsible merchants in this city give shocking details connected with the capture by the Spanish of rebel hospitals in that province. Mrs. Ruiz and Inguero, surgeons of the Cuban army, in charge with their assistants and corps of nurses, were all helpless sick and wounded were assassinated in the hospitals, and the bodies were burned over their heads to cover up the crime.

Rio and Montaner, the men who were imprisoned on account of the discovery of arms in San Rafael street at Havana yesterday, have been barbarously whipped by the Spanish police. The first one was tortured, a woman who was arrested has been confined for three days in a cell.

DR. MORTON A. PRATT, PUTATIVE FATHER OF THE POPLIST PARTY

Dr. Morton A. Pratt, who is a candidate for the Vice-presidential nomination of the Populist party, is generally accredited with being the father of that political division. Pratt is a Kansan, and the announcement of his candidacy was made some months ago by the chairman of the State Committee. It was on April 6, 1890, that, acting as County Chairman, he called the union labor forces of Sedgewick County together for the purpose of allying them with the farmers' movement. He is a native of Massachusetts, and served with distinction during the civil war. Early in the twenties he became instrumental in the granger movement, and was instrumental in organizing granges in Illinois.

as I have been able I have called off the dogs. The best sentiment of the country is focused on Bryan. Mr. Debs and his friends know that his nomination would fall flat, except in spots.

"What do you think will be the outcome of the convention?"

"It looks to me that a compromise will be insisted upon, with Bryan as the main candidate."

"The Populists have been placed in an awkward position by Taubeneck, McDowell, Taylor and other leaders. They have been guilty of the grossest duplicity, or corruption, and it looks like a great deal of both. Taubeneck has whipsawed his people. They are going to land until a trap was laid for him, and to save our lives there is no escape from his meshes."

"The Democrats acted boldly; they took position on our strongest ground and placed their backs to the wall. They are now in a command. Nothing is left but capitulation."

"Attorney Clarence Darrow said: 'It is useless to discuss Mr. Debs in connection with the Populist nomination. He will not accept it under any conditions. He knows the utility of such a thing.'

"This is a year in which we are to fight the greatest battle of modern times between the plutocrats and the producers. We ought not to divide our forces. The combined money power and the subsidized press are making a fight to keep the people in bondage to Wall Street and Lombard Street."

"Whether the platform or the candidates are exactly what we want are matters of little concern. We know which side we are on. We must do our share of the fighting."

"I confess that I am not over-optimistic, however hopeful I wish to be. I do not underestimate the powerful influences we have got to contend with."

"The most charitable view to take of the awkward position Taubeneck has placed the Populist party in is his utter unfitness for leadership. Every move he has made has been that of a crippled blunderer. He may be the stalking horse for a designing cabal that surrounds him."

"If I think the Populists ought to do nothing else it will rid the party of such managers."

Massacres in Asia Minor.
LONDON, July 23.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Times reports that massacres have occurred at Ordu, on the Black Sea, in Asia Minor, and that according to official accounts Armenians have been killed.

CHASED BY A CROWD.
Negro Thief Finally Run Down by Five Hundred Men.

The capture of Joe Davis, a negro, Wednesday afternoon, was one of the few incidents which have excited the "Tornado District" since the black storm, which was awaiting them.

When Davis was taken on July 2 he was away just twenty-one days. That time he was spent in Washington, D. C. He attended to no police business, and simply got all the benefit possible from the health resort.

When the chief left it was generally understood that his health was failing. When he arrived in the city Thursday he said he never felt better in his life. He has been that had he not taken the rest when he did he would have gotten so low that he could not get away.

He will resume his police duties immediately.

GIUSEFFI AGAIN ATTACHED.
Olive Street Ladies' Tailor Sued by His Creditors.

Ciriaco Giuseffi, the ladies' tailor at 233 Olive street, who was attached Wednesday for $2,728.17 by Cassidy, Dodd & Co., was made defendant in an attachment suit filed Thursday by Henry A. Casser for $2,254.

Political Prisoners Freed.
HAVANA, July 23.—In a celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the birth of the Queen Regent of Spain, Capt. Gen. Weyler has liberated eighty-two political prisoners held in Matanzas and twelve of the same class detained at Cienfuegos.

The most distinguished English and American specialists of the continent, Dr. Willson is a graduate of Albany, N. Y., class 1887; graduate and externship holder of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City; internist and dermatologist of twenty-two states and the Canadian; 12 years devoted especially to the treatment of diseases and disorders of the skin and venereal diseases, and has been successful in the treatment of many cases of skin diseases and venereal diseases.

MYSTERY OF THE "LADY IN DUCK."

THE POLICE ONCE MORE THROW HER BEHIND THE BARS.

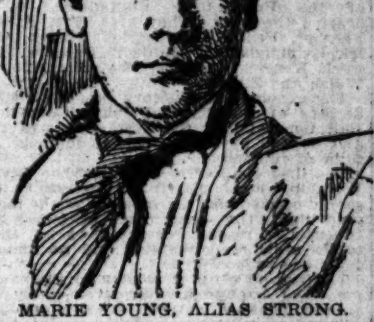

WILL RUN HER OUT OF TOWN.

No One Knows the Past of the Good-Looking Marie Young, But Her Record Is a Bad One.

Marie Young, the "lady in duck," who won a reputation as "the bicycle girl" several months ago by purchasing a wheel from a bicycle house at 1111 Olive street for a $100 check, which afterwards proved worthless, and who has an established criminal record, was arrested at Seventh and Washington avenues Wednesday evening by Detective Frank Anderson. She was locked in a cell at the Central Police Station on general principles, as she is considered dangerous to be loose.

While there is no charge against her she is sent to Police Court Friday morning and an effort will be made to have her ordered out of the city.

She is a rather good-looking woman, an of 23 years, is thought to have started her criminal career in St. Louis last winter when she created a sensation by dressing in a suit of white duck and securing a bicycle.

MARIE YOUNG, ALIAS STRONG.

cycle on a worthless check. She rode off on the wheel and the next day when the fraud was discovered the police were looking for the "lady in duck."

She was arrested, but was not prosecuted, because she returned the wheel to the firm she had swindled.

Marie's past is a mystery. She declines to say where she has been well educated. In addition to English, she speaks French and German. An expert needle worker and a well-to-do housewife, her short but swift criminal life, there are yet about her the traces of a reformation. She dresses in the very latest fashion, and is so attractively neat on the street that she causes comment.

After she got out of the bicycle trouble she rented a room on Washington avenue and then one day for a week she pursued a new scheme of theft. She would go into a store and order anywhere from $5 to $10 worth of goods and have them sent to her house at C. O. D. She would meet the messenger at the front door, take the package upstairs, saying she would return with the money. She would go down the back steps and drive away with her plunder.

The police were looking for her after that, but the next that was heard of her was when she was arrested at her home, which was robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry by the servant girl. That was the old Maggie Dalton scheme of robbing and in working on the case detectives traced the jewelry robbery to the "lady in duck."

Marie was arrested and she proved to be the servant girl. She had answered an advertisement for a servant and accepted the position in the morning and left in the afternoon with the stolen jewelry.

For that she was convicted and sentenced to the Work-house for sixty days. She finished her term there July 14 and has been living in a boarding house on Olive street since.

The police are afraid she will do more stealing and for that reason want to get her out of the city.

CHIEF HARRIGAN RETURNS.
Feels Like a New Man After His Three Weeks' Vacation.

Chief of Police Laurence Harrigan and his wife arrived at Union Station Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock after being away from the city three weeks.

They were met by Capt. O'Malley and James C. Egan, the chief's secretary. The party took breakfast at the Station dining-room, after which the chief and his wife drove home in their carriage, which was awaiting them.

When Maj. Harrigan left on July 2 he said he would be gone three weeks. He was away just twenty-one days. That time he was spent in Washington, D. C. He attended to no police business, and simply got all the benefit possible from the health resort.

When the chief left it was generally understood that his health was failing. When he arrived in the city Thursday he said he never felt better in his life. He has been that had he not taken the rest when he did he would have gotten so low that he could not get away.

He will resume his police duties immediately.

CHASED BY A CROWD.
Negro Thief Finally Run Down by Five Hundred Men.

The capture of Joe Davis, a negro, Wednesday afternoon, was one of the few incidents which have excited the "Tornado District" since the black storm, which was awaiting them.

When Davis was taken on July 2 he was away just twenty-one days. That time he was spent in Washington, D. C. He attended to no police business, and simply got all the benefit possible from the health resort.

When the chief left it was generally understood that his health was failing. When he arrived in the city Thursday he said he never felt better in his life. He has been that had he not taken the rest when he did he would have gotten so low that he could not get away.

POPS MARKING A PLATFORM.

GEN. WEAVER ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE.

VICTORY FOR THE BRYAN MEN.

The Chairman Wears a Bryan Badge and Is Enthusiastically in Favor of Indorsement.

The Populist Committee on Platform met at the Lindell Hotel immediately after its appointment.

Gen. J. B. Weaver of Iowa was elected chairman over Hon. Jerome Kirby of Texas, the vote being 21 to 11 in Gen. Weaver's favor.

Upon taking the chair, Gen. Weaver congratulated Mr. Kirby upon being so nearly on a parity with himself. He continued his speech by saying that the money question was everywhere considered paramount in the present campaign and the People's party had made much.

This question had split the two old parties, and there was no doubt of the opportunity presented to the Populists.

He described the demands of the party on this question as being the free and unlimited tender of silver, the issuance of legal tender paper money, and the abolition of the national banks.

He said the transportation question was also essential as was the question of the election of United States Senators by the people.

While he felt, he said, like congratulating the Democrats upon their recent action, he wanted to say that he believed the People's party should plant itself on its own platform.

He was for the principle of the party first and for the party autonomy next, but he desired that it be understood that he did not propose to give up either.

There could be no doubt that the principles which he had enunciated were the essential ones, and he thought there would be no difficulty in concluding the work to-day.

Robert Schilling of Wisconsin was elected Secretary and Joseph Burdett of Mississippi, Assistant Secretary.

The committee decided upon the appointment of five sub-committees of five each on preamble, finance, transportation, and direct legislation, and authorized the chairman to make the selections.

The selection of Gen. Weaver as chairman of the committee was a Bryan victory.

Gen. Weaver is chairman of the Bryan caucus and wore a Bryan badge when he took the chair.

TRAGEDY AT CINCINNATI.

A Woman Killed and Her Husband Wounded.

CINCINNATI, O., July 23.—Early this morning six shots were heard at the residence of William T. Wiley, ladies' tailor and furrier, on West Fifth street.

When Wiley's room was entered Mrs. Wiley was found bleeding from five bullet wounds and her husband unconscious, with a bullet hole in the right temple. The wounded woman died on the way to the hospital.

Wiley's wound was superficial, the ball glancing off the skull. They had frequent quarrels and were separated, but began to live together again about three months ago. Wiley says his wife shot him and he then seized the revolver and fired at her.

He came here from Louisville about fifteen years ago.

CHICAGO CONFERENCE.

Sound Money Men Get Together Thursday Evening.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Sound money Democrats from various Western States as well as from other parts gathered in Chicago to-day.

They have made the Palmer House their headquarters and are here to attend the conference.

The conference will be held at the Auditorium this evening. These upholders of sound currency are as enthusiastic as the Bryan men.

A reliable Democratic convention to nominate candidates is what they want, and it now seems more probable that a convention will be held and that very soon.

Comptroller Eckels is on his way here from Washington to attend the conference. His coming will have a great deal to do with the result of the Chicago conference.

Gen. R. B. Briggs of Wisconsin and Senator William F. Vilas are expected late this afternoon.

Kentucky Republican League.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 23.—The State League of Republican Clubs met at 1 o'clock to-day in the Chautauque Auditorium to select delegates to the convention of the National Republican League.

The delegates to the convention are to be elected by the clubs. The usual annual business of the league was transacted.

Among those in attendance are Gov. Bradley and other State officers. The delegates to the convention are to be elected by the clubs.

Among them was also a communication from Geo. D. Reynolds, a Louisville business man, a letter from an old Morgan rider who is now a leading Memphis business man in which he says he will support McKinley, although always a Democrat.

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Banks Will Bolster It Up With Over Twenty-three Million Dollars.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23.—The Treasury Department has been advised that over $23,000,000 in gold will be turned into the sub-treasuries by the banks in exchange for legal tenders.

The gold reserve, of this amount about $15,000,000 is pledged by New York banks, and there by Boston and Philadelphia.

Miners Strike.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 23.—Miners employed in the coal mines at Riverton, Barron, Dawson and Spaulding, this county, many of whom are on strike, have today reduced wages from 35 to 25 cents per ton.

Steamship Movements.

PLYMOUTH, Mo., July 23.—Arrived: Augusta from New York for Hamburg.

BREMEN, Mo., July 23.—Arrived: Havell from New York via Southampton.

NATCHEZ, Mo., July 23.—Arrived: Bona from New York.

JONES DENIES.

Democratic Chairman Declares Any One Who Says He Has Compromised With Pops Is a Liar.

"Any man who says that I have agreed with the Populists or any other party for a compromise on the presidential candidates is a liar and the truth is not in him."

"JAMES K. JONES," Chairman Dem. Nat. Ex. Com.

The reports of dicker and trades between Chairman Jones and Populist leaders have exhausted his patience, and he made the above emphatic declaration Thursday when asked by a Post-Dispatch reporter what truth there was in such reports.

"What do you think of the situation this morning, Senator, and what, in your judgment, will be the outcome of the Populist convention?"

"I shall give out any opinion on the situation, and so far as the outcome is concerned it would be silly in me to make a prediction."

Chairman Jones has kept open house, and in his off-hand way has received all comers giving such a patient hearing as at the same time expressing his views as to the proper course to pursue.

Mr. Jones has not deemed it good policy to give out all the propositions that are being made, nor the absolute rejection of many of them.

A gentleman who is in close touch with the chairman said: "Mr. Jones early has an overwhelming tendency on the part of Populists to indorse his candidate. He is a shrewd and trained politician, who would not throw away a vote."

Chairman Jones is in close communication with Mr. Bryan. Gov. Stone, one of the National Committee, is with him, and others are kept advised as to what is going on.

SLEEP WALKER FALLS.

From a Third-Story Window, Receiving Injuries From Which He May Die.

William Bergman, 55 years old, walked in his sleep Thursday morning and fell from a third-story window of the Hotel Nolte, 235 University street, sustaining injuries which it is thought will be fatal.

Bergman was employed at the hotel as porter and occupied a room on the third floor. He retired at about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, leaving the window in his room open.

At 1 o'clock Thursday morning the gentleman occupying the room on the ground floor directly under the one in which Bergman slept, was sitting by the window reading, when he heard a human body strike on the pavement near him.

He looked out and saw the body of the porter, clad in underclothes, lying in a heap on the sidewalk. He summoned assistance and Bergman was carried into the hotel, but he was soon removed to the City Hospital. Dr. Sutter thought that while no bones were broken the man had received internal injuries which would probably result in his death.

Bergman says that he has often walked in his sleep and that he probably walked out of the window this time.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

Neighbor of Bryan Tells What Manner of Man He Is.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: In an evening paper a few nights ago I saw a statement to the effect that the delegates to the Populist convention were not stopping at cheap boarding-houses, but were staying at the high-priced hotels.

As a poor man, I was interested, through vicious legislation, they are compelled to live as best they can, I earnestly hope that the delegates to the convention will not be the least of the voters of this country.

The millions of people who are in this city, they are the poor man's friends, the rich, because they were the possessors of the money, and the poor man's friends, because they are the possessors of the money.

As an individual, I am a poor man's friend, and I am a poor man's friend, because I am a poor man's friend, and I am a poor man's friend, because I am a poor man's friend.

Now you have within your city a convention of honest, earnest hard-fisted men, who are the poor man's friends, and who are the poor man's friends, and who are the poor man's friends, and who are the poor man's friends.

Under cross-examination the petitioner declared that his domestic troubles arose from her drinking habits and fast living. He never, while his wife, although he had signed a statement that he had done so.

The hearing was adjourned.

MRS. MILES SELLS DIES SUDDENLY.

PASSED AWAY WHILE AT AN EASTERN SUMMER RESORT.

SHE WAS A RICH WIDOW.

Devoted Much of Her Time and Wealth to Relieving the Distress of the Needy.

Mrs. Susanna Sells, widow of the late Miles Sells, died at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Little Bearhead, N. H.

News of Mrs. Sells' death reached St. Louis Thursday morning in a telegram from Mr. Wesley Austin, her near relative, from her daughter Sells, wife of Dr. E. H. Gregory, Jr., with whom Mrs. Sells had gone to Bearhead for the summer.

The telegram directed that arrangements be made for holding the funeral Saturday morning from the family residence, 3317 Lucas avenue, and that Rev. John P. Cannon of the Grand Avenue Presbyterian Church be requested to conduct the services.

A list of gentlemen whom Mrs. Gregory desired to act as pall-bearers was also given. Among them were Capt. J. S. Nanson, D. K. Penick, C. E. Barney, Hiram Grover and Wesley Austin.

Mrs. Sells was about 60 years old and one of the most prominent women in St. Louis. Her mansion on Lucas avenue was one of the most pretentious in St. Louis. Possessed of great wealth, she was well known for her charitable deeds.

The death of Miles Sells, after over thirty-five years' residence in St. Louis, occurred thirteen months ago. He was a prominent figure on Chicago's well-known commission since Mr. Sells' death. Mrs. Sells had been failing in health and she never fully recovered from it. Her death, which was quite sudden, was due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Sells were married in Iowa. Mrs. Sells was born in St. Louis, Mo., and moved to St. Louis soon after her marriage. Mr. Sells formed a partnership with Capt. J. S. Nanson in the commission business.

Several children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Sells, but Mrs. Gregory alone survives.

YARDE-BULLER DIVORCE.

The Petitioner's Ugly Charges Against His American Wife.

LONDON, July 23.—The trial of the Yarde-Buller divorce case began to-day before the Right Hon. Sir Francis B. Buller, who is the plaintiff in the case. The defendant is the Hon. Walter Yarde-Buller, brother of Lord Churston, and member of a distinguished family of Devonshire.

The defendant, Mrs. Lillah Yarde-Buller, is the daughter of the late General R. W. Kirkham, who was a wealthy resident of San Francisco.

The plaintiff alleges cruelty and adultery on the part of the defendant with Mr. Valentine Gadsden, who is said to be a real estate agent in San Francisco. Mrs. Yarde-Buller denies all the allegations and makes counter accusations. The plaintiff's petition recites the facts of his marriage with the defendant, who was then Miss Lillah Yarde-Buller.

Mr. Boyle Blair, who died in the British Consular service in South Africa. He settled in London upon her, and she then married him. She is alleged to have been a woman of loose morals, and she is alleged to have been a woman of loose morals, and she is alleged to have been a woman of loose morals.

While the good wife is staying at home working industriously the husbands are out riding and fixing bicycles for some of these old men who would never see a man if he did not ride a bicycle in a Quincey contest. Camp Point Fair will have unusual attractions this year.

Mrs. Lucinda Burton, one of the oldest if not the oldest person in Brown County, died at Mount Sterling recently in her 99th year.
